Our employee engagement

Our employees are the heart and soul of the company. We are proud of the culture we create together. Our employees continuously tell us they find fulfillment in serving AAA Members, and are motivated by the growth and innovation this commitment brings. They're inspired by the organization's engagement with our community and by working with diverse and talented colleagues who serve members and communities with care and compassion.

Our investment in ourselves

We continuously learn and grow, with an eye to the future, to address ever-changing member needs. We invest in ourselves by building skills and developing our employees so they achieve both personal and collective goals. We offer coaching and employee development programs such as the Aspiring Leaders Development Program and the Accelerators program.

Our passion for service excellence

Built on a legacy of caring, we deliver unparalleled customer experiences and strive to exceed the current and emerging needs of members, our communities and one another. We are proud to have some of the best customer service scores in the industry.

Our community impact programs

CSAA Insurance Group has been repeatedly named one of the 50 most community-minded companies in America by Points of Light. Our employee impact program leverages the use of company-paid time off to drive meaningful change in our communities, including hands-on, skills-based and pro bono volunteerism and nonprofit board service. We seek to develop multifaceted relationships with trusted partners to drive sustained community impact.

Our inclusion and belonging

Our differences, visible and invisible, make every individual at CSAA Insurance Group valuable. We foster a culture where all employees feel a sense of belonging and can leverage their differences to thrive. CSAA Insurance Group has several Employee Resource Groups and Diversity Councils that support the company's mission and give everyone in our community a voice.

Our commitment to sustainability

We are proud of our work in environmental sustainability, which continues to evolve with the strong support of our Sustainable CSAA IG employee group. We are vigilant about reducing our environmental footprint and the impacts of climate change. Our headquarters is certified LEED Gold, and one of our other employee centers is certified LEED Silver. Two of our employee centers received an Energy Star rating for 2020.

Our innovation

We are at the forefront of significant disruption in our industry. As we navigate this disruption, we will be the leader in meeting members' evolving needs and helping them manage emerging risks. We are transforming our company to ensure our success—moving fast, thinking big and aiming high.

Our focus on wellness

We enhance our employees' quality of life by providing a wide variety of tools and resources that actively support their physical, emotional and financial well-being. We were honored to be recognized for the Best Wellness Program in 2020 by the California HR Excellence Awards and for Best Companies for Work-Life Balance in 2020 by the Comparably Awards.
